

Patients improve when they use Lympha Press.

“We have actually seen in real time the way the Lympha Press device can activate the lymphatics to enhance lymphatic flow using near-infrared imaging technology. This validates what we understand clinically: that patients improve when they use the Lympha Press pneumatic compression device.”

Take control of heavy, swollen limbs.

Managing swelling is important, because when fluid builds up, it can cause skin changes and become a breeding ground for infection, such as cellulitis. Using your Lympha Press at home moves fluid up and out of your system.

Don't let lymphedema stop you from living well. Lympha Press empowers you with:

- Garments that are easy to put on, fasten, zip up, and clean.
- Treatment that can be tailored to your specific condition and needs.
- A caring team to teach you how to use your therapy and encourage your success.
